Christian Stewardship

As Christian Stewards:

- We receive God's gifts gratefully
- Cultivate them responsibly
- Share them lovingly in justice with others
- Return them with increase to the Lord

Vocational Stewardship

God intends each one of us to play a unique role in carrying out the divine plan. The challenge, then, is to understand our role—our vocation—and to respond generously to this call from God. Christian vocation entails the practice of stewardship.

Church Stewardship

Stewards of God's gifts are not passive beneficiaries. We are also obliged to be stewards of the Church—collaborators and cooperators in continuing the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, which is the Church's essential mission.

St. Luke Stewards:

- Participate in Church Sacraments including Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation
- Nurture children and others in the light of faith
- Generously support — time, money, prayers, and personal service — to parish and diocesan programs and to the universal Church
